Bioethics Department at Sinai Health System – Bioethics Studentship Opportunities

Fall Application Deadline: July 12, 2019

Introduction

The Bioethics Department at Sinai Health System offers studentship opportunities to students interested in bioethics. Students are matched with a supervisor and location (Mount Sinai Hospital and/or Bridgepoint) depending on their interests and available projects. The studentship is ideal for those with an interest in ethical issues in women’s and infants’ health (including antenatal, perinatal, neonatal, fertility, labor and delivery, etc.) and complex care, rehab and adult medicine etc.

Eligibility:

We accept students from the traditional bioethics-feeder disciplines, including philosophy, medicine, nursing, social work, law, religious studies, as well as other clinical, humanities and social science disciplines.

Volunteer Studentships:

The volunteer studentship in the academic year is centered on a project to be determined together by the student and supervisor.

Application process:

Fall: July 12th 2019

Winter: November 1st 2019

Subject to capacity, applications may also be accepted on a rolling basis.

For more information please send an email to Rebecca Greenberg – Senior Bioethicist, rebecca.greenberg@sinaihealthsystem.ca

Applications must include: (1) full CV, (2) writing sample, (3) names of 2 referees (4) a letter of intent describing: (a) why you are interested in a volunteer studentship; (b) your background in bioethics to date; (c) topics in bioethics that you would be interested in researching and writing about during a studentship.