

University of Toronto Joint Centre for Bioethics Annual Lectures

Jus Committee

The Jus Lecture in honour of Dr. Andrezej Jus was created by Dr. Karolina Jus in 1994 in honour of her late husband, Dr. Andrzej Jus. Its mandate is to bring to the University of Toronto an internationally recognized major contributor to the advancement of genetics, neuroscience, psychiatry and its ethical implications.

Previous Speakers

Date	Speaker	Title
10 November 2010	James Giordano	Neuroethics: Coming of Age and Facing the Future
18 November 2009	Frederick Lowy	Double Agency in Health Care: an inevitable dilemma?
29 January 2009	Judy Illes	Knowledge, Values, Neuroscience
2008	No Lecture
27 September 2007	Nick Bostrom	Status quo Bias in Bioethics: The Case for Cognitive Enhancement
3 May 2006	Mohamed Hassan	Promoting a Culture of Excellence in Scientific Research and Education in Developing Countries
2005	No Lecture
6 October 2004	Michael Gazzaniga	Simple and Complex Issues in Neuroethics
12 November 2003	Zach Hall	Neuroethics: A challenge for a new age
2002	John Bell	Genetic risk factors: the ethical dimensions
2000	Michael Marrus	Invoking the Nazis in bioethics
1999	James Watson	DNA and politics
1998	Floyd Bloom	Basically honest is not good enough in science
1997	Fred Gage	Gene and cell transfer to the brain: science and ethics
1996	Anne Young	Scientific and ethical dilemmas of advances in Huntington's disease
1995	Jean-Pierre Changeux	Reflections of a neuroscientist on the foundations of ethics