

University of Toronto Joint Centre for Bioethics Annual Lectures

MacRae LECTURE

The Sue MacRae Lecture on Ethics and Patient-Centred Care is a lecture to explore the “felt” ethical experience of those who are sick and facing life threatening illness in their relationship to themselves, family members, caregivers, and systems of care. This lecture seeks to understand patient-centred and relationship-centred theoretical frameworks and best practices that describe common ethical problems that are inclusive of patient and family perspectives.

Previous Speakers

| Date | Speaker | Title |
|--------------|--------------------|--|
| 25 May 2011 | Karima Velji | Will You Be There When I Am Old? [†] Ethical Considerations Related to Aging [†] Adapted from title of CIHR Café Scientifique panel (November 2010) |
| 2 June 2010 | Maira Stewart | Patients and Primary Health Care Providers Working Together to Enhance Patient-Centred Primary Health Care |
| 11 May 2009 | Roshi Joan Halifax | The Heart of Caring for the Dying |
| 11 June 2008 | Barbara Farlow | Making Tough Decisions Together: A Family's Perspective of the Vital Importance of Ethics and Patient-Centred Care |